Deed of Gift

Date _____

Name _____ herein called the DONOR, at

Address _____, hereby irrevocably and unconditionally gives and assigns to Loyola Marymount University, herein called the UNIVERSITY, absolute and unconditional ownership of the following property to which I (we) have title:

THE UNIVERSITY, its successors and assigns, shall have ownership of the said property including without limitation full powers of management, access, display, conservation, and disposition by the UNIVERSITY in its sole discretion, in exercise of its general educational purpose and in compliance with the collection development policies of its LIBRARY. Any materials deemed inappropriate for the collections or duplicated may be disposed of by the LIBRARY in accordance with library best practices procedures and/or nationally accepted archival standards. At the discretion of the UNIVERSITY, donated materials, in whole or in part, may be reformatted (e.g., digitized, transcribed, bound, and the like) for preservation and/or access purposes. The donated materials shall be accessible to all persons qualified to use the materials in the LIBRARY as well as beyond the LIBRARY.

DONOR represents and warrants ownership and control of the copyrights, if any, in the donated materials. DONOR unconditionally gives and assigns the UNIVERSITY all copyrights*, literary rights* and other rights associated with said property to which I (we) have title.

DONOR represents and warrants ownership and control of the copyrights, if any, in the donated materials. DONOR is not conveying or gifting to the UNIVERSITY the copyrights in the donated materials. I (we) understand that scholars will need to contact me (us) for permission to publish reproductions or extensive quotes from any of the said property. The following contact information may be shared with any researchers seeking permission to publish. This person shall have the authority to grant said permission:
