

CSLA Research Collections

Young men in Independence, California. From: J. D. Black Papers, 1876-1999 (CSLA-15)

The Department of Archives and Special Collections' manuscript holdings include the Center for the Study of Los Angeles (CSLA) Research Collection which emphasizes papers of Los Angeles public officials; Los Angeles real estate and industrial developers; reformers and reform movements, principally in late twentieth-century Los Angeles; and prominent Roman Catholic families in Los Angeles.

Additional Los Angeles holdings within the department's special collections are found within the Book, Manuscript, Postcard, Art and Artifact, and Audiovisual Collections.

Inquiries and appointments to use the holdings are made with the Department of Archives and Special Collections: special.collections@lmu.edu | (310) 338-5710.

Loyola Marymount University established the Research Collection as a program of the Thomas and Dorothy Leavey Center for the Study of Los Angeles in February 1996. The collection was made possible by a generous grant from the E. L. Wiegand Foundation of Reno, Nevada. The Department of Archives and Special Collections of Loyola Marymount University's William H. Hannon Library administers the CSLA Research Collection.
